SMALLPOX ABOARD.

Prompt Action of the Authorities-Quarantine at Alexandria-Ar-

When the schooner Earl Biscoe, with the case of smallpox on board, reached the forks of the channel below the arsenal yesterday evening the harbor police boat Vigilant, with a marine hospital surgeon as a passenger, was waiting for her. She the surgeon, who found John Miller, colored, aged twenty-five years, lying in the forepeak with a well-developed case of the

On the vessel were three other men who had never had the disease mentioned. One of the crew assured the surgeon he was immune against all diseases. Capt. Gaskins said he had smallpox years ago.

By the direction of the marine hospital authorities Miller was taken ashore by the crew in a small boat and was sent to the smallpox hospital, while the three others of the crew were taken to the detention camp as suspects. Capt. Gaskins was left in charge of the vessel. Later in the evening the boat was thoroughly fumigated and in a few days will be allowed to come up to the wharves and discharge her cargo of

Under the direction of Surgeon General Wyman Dr. Arthur Snowden, the marine hospital surgeon in Alexandria, will have all vessels from the neighborhood of Nomini stopped below Alexandria for examination before coming to this city.

As this quarantine has not yet been established, the harbor police boat Vigi'ant was out this morning and hailed the Bessie and Lelia, C. W. Stevens, Chas. H. Dalger, E. C. Rice and Katie Muller, respectively, and, finding no sickness aboard of any of them and being satisfied they were not from the Nomini neighborhood, the crew allowed them to come up into the

"The subcommittee of the committee on the judiciary today agreed to a report to the full committee a proposed constitutional amendment, which provides that Congress shall have power to define, regulate, control, prohibit or dissolve trusts, monopolies or combinations, whether existing in the form of a corporation or otherwise, and which further provides that the several states may continue to exercise such power in any manner not in conflict with the laws of the United States.

"The necessity for this amendment grows out of the fact that it is held by the Supreme Court of the United States that manufacture and production are no part of interstate commerce and cannot be reached under the interstate commerce clause of the Constitution, even though monopoly in manufacture is not restrainable by Congress even when it controls the output of an article of necessity to all the people in all the states and fixes the act of July "Another measure amends the act of July "Another measure amends the act of July

DR. DOMER RETIRES.

Resigns Pastorate of St. Paul's Eng-lish Lutheran Church.

The resignation of Rev. Samuel Domer, D. D., as pastor of St. Paul's English Lutheran Church, 11th and H streets northwest, was presented last evening at a meeting of the congregation and was accepted. This action was taken by Dr. Do mer because of advancing years and impaired health. His intention to do so was nnounced in The Star several weeks ago. After the reports had been read of the work of the year, which showed a prosperous condition of affairs, a letter from Dr Domer tendering his resignation and addressed to the council of the church was read. In this letter he stated the "resignation is designed to take effect on the 31st day of May next. Then my active ministry will have included a period of a little more than forty-five years, more than half of which has been spent in St. Paul's of Washington.

than forty-five years, more than half of which has been spent in St. Paul's of Washington.

"I need not assure you of the severity of this trial which has come upon me," he added. "With my loving regard for you as a council and with appreciative considerations for every one of you for your kindness toward me in all our official and personal relations with each other. I feel sad in the severance of those relations. But the years roll on, and the inevitable lessons of these years must be heeded. My resignation is prompted solely by this consideration and in no sort of way by any dissatisfaction with the dear people among whom I have been permitted to labor and live so many years. I wish here to express my thanks to the dear members of the church for all their courtesies and kindnesses through all these years and to assure them of my tenderest regard and love, as I now 'pitch my moving tent' a little further toward the sunset of life. I am not well; I am weary; I need rest. I have done what I could; I only regret that I have been unable to do better and to accomplish more."

The letter was referred to a committee.

only regret that I have been unable to do better and to accomplish more."

The letter was referred to a committee, which submitted resolutions. These were adopted and were to the effect that "by reason of advancing years and impaired health our beloved pastor, the Rev. Samuel Domer, D. D., has tendered his resignation as pastor; and consideration, regretfully accept the same as tendered.

"That we hereby express our appreciation of his faithful ministry of nearly twenty-six years in our midst; his cheerful and happy disposition at a[#] times; his comfortng assurances during times of trouble and sorrow, and his tender care and earnest solicitude for the spiritual welfare of his people; and as a mark of appreciation for his long and faithful service we vote him the sum of $500 as a vacation fund."

The meeting then adjourned.

EFFECTS OF STRIKE.

Railway Officials Say No Embarrass ment is Caused by Telegraphers. The officials of the Southern railway in this city declare that the effects of the teegraphers' strike are no longer causing embarrassment of any consequence in the conduct of the business of the road. Reports from the various division superintendents, the officials here say, show that passenger and freight traffic is again moving along with little delay save such as is incidental to the business of railroading. The officials say that 75 per cent of the places of men who have gone on strike have been filled, and that the chief difficulty occurs where a striking amploys was both security. where a striking employe was both agent and operator.
As an evidence that the strike is well in As an evidence that the strike is well in hand, it was said today, General Manager Gannon has left Washington on a business trip, which he has been contemplating for several weeks. His trip, it is stated, is in nowise connected with the strike.

The Georgetown University glee concert and dramatic entertainment for the benefit of the fund being raised to send the athetic team to the Paris exposition games vill take place tomorrow evening at the National Theater. Indications are that this affair will be the most brilliant entertainment ever presented under the auspices of the university. The preparations which have been in progress were planned on a most elaborate scale in order to make what will prove the most conspicuous appearance of the musical societies of the university a glorious success artistically and to insure such a notable amount of patronage as would bring a large increase for the Paris trip fund. No previous enterprise has aroused the enthusiasm among the students, the alumni and their friends that is being manifested over the concert. The most prominent members of Washington social circles have interested themselves actively in the undertaking and are doing much to make it a social success. There has been a great demand for tickets, and only a few boxes remain. The saie of tickets will continue at Sanders & Stayman's until tomorrow evening, when the few good seats remaining will be disposed of at the box office.

The numbers of the concert will be furnished by the Georgetown Glee Club, admittedly one of the best in the country, the mittedly one of the best in the country. good seats remaining will be disposed of at the box office.

The numbers of the concert will be furnished by the Georgetown Glee Club, admittedly one of the best in the country; the mandolin club, which made a splendid reputation on its northern trip; the glee quartet, which has several times scored emphatic hits before Washington audiences, and well-known soldists. There will also be numbers by the Carroll Institute Orchestra, and one of the features of the affair will be a clever dramatic sketch to be presented by the Carroll Institute Dramatic Club.

SENATOR MASON'S ADRESS. Was Principal Speaker at Emancipa-tion Celebration.

Senator William E. Mason of Illinois was the principal speaker at the gathering of colored people yesterday afternoon in the Vermont Avenue Baptist Church at 3:30 o'clock. The meeting was a feature of the celebration of Emancipation day by the colored people of the District. Rev. George W. Lee, pastor of the church, delivered the address of welcome. Jesse Lawson, chairman of the subcommittee of the National Afro-American Council, presided, and in introducing Senator Mason referred proud-Introducing Senator Mason referred proudly to the record of the colored race since its day of freedom.

Senator Mason paid tribute to the memories of Lincoln and Grant, and complimented the colored race upon its advancement. He aroused much enthusiasm among his hearers by roundly denouncing what he termed "class legislation in the south." He also spoke with feeling regarding the lynching and burning of negroes, without justice being meted out to the people who take the law in their own hands.

Representative White of North Carolina was one of the prominent speakers of the afternoon. He spoke of the issues confronting his race, and declared their solution depended largely upon the colored peo-fronting his race, and declared their solution depended largely upon the colored people themselves. He advised thrift on the part of his people, the acquiring of property and the accomplishing in good style of whatever duty was assigned them. With their trust placed in God, he said, and the knowledge of the fact that the government no longer looks upon the black man as a ward, from now on what the race hopes to accomplish must come from the negro himself.

accomplish must come from the negro himself.

The ceremonies yesterday were declared to be a decided success in every way. They were under the auspices of the Lincoln Emancipation League, with James W. Poe as president and J. W. Coles as secretary. The league gave much of its time to arranging for the ceremonies at Vermont Avenue Church.

It was after 2 o'clock when the officer of the day reached the White House. The military and civic organizations in line followed, passing in review before the President, whom they cheered as they passed. The parade was regarded as the most orderly for years.

From the White House most of the organizations marched to the church, where the speaking was to take place. A large crowd had gathered here and the editice was soon crowded with people. A little confusion among the managers occurred at the church. President Poe had sent a committee with a decorated carriage to the Capitol for Senator Mason, but for some reason it failed to get there on time and the senator was brought in another carriage by the master of ceremonies and another committee. When the first committee linally returned to the church the members found the senator in the midst of his oration.

It was 2:45 o'clock when President P apped for order. Rev. Geo. W. Lee deliv-red the invocation, and Mr. Poe made an iddress prior to introducing the presiding

Seated on the platform were Senator Mason of Illinois, Representative George H. White of the second congressional district of North Carolina, Mr. C. J. Jones of trict of North Carolina, Mr. C. J. Jones of Mississippi, the president of the day, Jas. W. Poe; E. M. Hewlett of the District bar, Col. Perry H. Carson, Prof. J. W. Coles, secretary of the day; Prof. Jesse Lawson, master of ceremonies. At 5:30 Rev. W. J. Howard, chaplain of the day, delivered the benediction and the meeting adjourned with many expressions of satisfaction with the work of the league.

VETERANS CELEBRATE. District Volunteers of 1861-'65 Hold a

The survivors of the District of Columbia Volunteers of 1861-65 celebrated with an elaborate entertainment last night at Typographical Temple the thirty-ninth anniversary of their muster into the volunteer army of the civil war. The program of musical numbers and literary efforts was a most enjoyable one. Upon the conclusion of the speechmaking and other features of the regular program the hall was cleared and dancing induiged in up to a late hour. Mr. J. T. Ford, chairman of the committee in charge, presided. He introduced Mr. Henry A. Castle, sixth auditor of the treasury, who gave a short but intensely inter ury, who gave a short but intensely interesting history of the old volunteers of the District. Out of the 3,500 who enlisted, he declared, only 500 can now be accounted for, and 200 of these are members of the Survivors' Association.

Those assisting in the program were Miss A. C. Murray, Mme. B. G. Chopin-Kelth, Miss Violet Pierson, Mr. I. J. Smith, Mr. F. R. Hoadley, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Burke, Master Willie Burke, Little Elsie Worth, Miss Anna Pearl Evans, Mr. T. O. Pulizzi, Mr. J. H. Golden, Mrs. W. H. Robey and Mr. Will A. Boyd.

ROW IN BASSETT'S ALLEY.

The Offenders Arraigned in Court— Other Cases Tried.

Bassett's alley was the scene of a row last night, in which a number of gaily dressel colored women participated. Detective Williams of the ninth precinct heard of the trouble in time to reach the alley before it was over. Gene Butler, Ohvia Butler and Ida Gray were arrested.

"I heard the Butler girls use bad language," the officer told Judge Scott this morning, "but the other woman was not so bad."

Ida Gray denied the charge, and was released. The other women were fined $5 each and will serve fifteen days in default of and will serve fifteen days in default of payment.

"This woman had the whole street in an uproar last night," Policeman Elliott said about Eliza Fletcher, "and when I arrested her she had a pint bottle of whisky."

"I didn't have any such thing," declared the woman; "I had a pint bottle, but I only had 10 cents' worth in it."
